

Non-Medical Volunteers: Assistant Mission Director

The Assistant Mission Director is a veteran of multiple Rotaplast missions who has been recommended by Mission Directors they have worked with to become a Mission Director in training. This team member is placed on the mission by Rotaplast. The Assistant Mission Director helps the Mission Director with the preliminary preparations for the trip and backs up the Mission Director at the site.