

Non-Medical Volunteers: Recovery Room Helper

Helpers in the Recovery Room area help the Recovery Room Nurses. They may comfort a child or a parent, run errands for the Recovery Room Nurses or serve in any way they can to allow the medical personnel to function effectively. They should be comfortable with exposure to body fluids and have the stamina for long hours in this environment.